

VALENTINA HINTEREGGER

LEADERSHIP COACH &
FACILITATOR

BACKGROUND

In her professional career of 9 years, Valentina's main focus has been on driving change and transformation on an organisational and individual level. She consults and coaches managers in questions of reorganisations, cultural change and leadership development.

By helping leaders to find purpose, focus and progress their authentic leadership style, she supports them to succeed in today's business environment, stay true to who they are and navigate through challenging times.

She is an accredited executive coach and has worked with senior leaders from 49 nationalities and teams from all around the globe. In her work she also gained experience in innovative organisational models as well as agile leadership.

Her clients describe her as empathetic, with the ability to ask the right questions and provide a safe space to reflect and find solutions for their individual coaching questions.
